

Pentecost – It's More Than a Word

Is Yahuwah, right now, as you read this, trying to save the world? Most religious people believe He is. Most believe that “trying to save the world” is how Yahuwah spends His time and energy.

But what would you think of an Aluhym who is all-wise, all-knowing, all merciful and all-powerful, but the best He can do is “try” to save the world? If He really is all-powerful, why doesn't He just save the world and be done with it? Why does He have to allow so much injustice, hatred, suffering, tragedy and catastrophe? Why is there so much crime, strife, hunger and war? In fact, why is there any? Can't Yahuwah stop it?

If Yahuwah really is trying to save the world right now, how would you rate His performance? All things considered, His marks would have to be pretty low.

What is the truth? We could speculate and postulate. We could surmise and theorize. We could imagine and conjecture. But we will not find the answer in all the pondering and contemplation in the world. There is only one source where we will find the truth. The source is Yahuwah Himself.

Yahuwah has revealed His plan of salvation in His Word, the Bible, to those who obey Him. Those who do not obey Him do not understand that plan: “But the natural man does not receive the things of the Ruwach of Yahuwah, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned” (I Corinthians 2:14). The fact is Yahuwah only gives His Ruwach to those who obey Him (Acts 5:32).

Yahuwah is all-wise, all-knowing, all-merciful, and all-powerful. But He is NOT trying to save the world now! There is a reason humanity is suffering, but that suffering is going to end! Yahuwah has a MASTER PLAN, and that plan is right on schedule. It is revealed in the pages of the Bible.

Yahuwah does know what He is doing, and He is doing it the way that will ultimately result in the greatest possible number of human beings being saved.

Yahuwah of Hosts came to earth as a human being, as Amanuwal Ha'Mashyach, the Savior, and paid the penalty of sin by His scourging, crucifixion and death. That same Amanuwal was raised from the dead and at this moment sits at the right hand of Yahuwah as Intercessor for the saints, as High Priest and as Head of His Assembly. And He is coming back. Not as a sheep to the slaughter this time, but to prevent the utter annihilation of all humanity, to establish His Kingdom and to take over the affairs of this world as King of kings and Sovereign of sovereigns – as Supreme Ruler over all nations!

Then will begin the process that will ultimately culminate in the great judgment – the first opportunity for salvation for the vast majority of mankind!

Yes, Pentecost is much more than a word. It is one of the seven annual Kadosh Days Yahuwah commands His people to keep/observe, one which reveals what Yahuwah is doing right now – before the return of Amanuwal Ha'Mashyach – and why!

Throughout the next month, I will be posting more information on this step in Yahuwah's plan. You will be able to access these and more at www.assemblyofyahuwah.com.
