I. Read Exodus 13:1-10

- A. What was memorialized in the Feast of Unleavened Bread?
- B. Who is the focus of attention during these days?
- C. What was the attitude of the people on this memorable occasion?

Clearly, the Days of Unleavened Bread were approached by Israel as a time of high celebration. They rejoiced in remembrance of Yahuwah's deliverance.

It is not uncommon for people to focus on their sins so much during the Days of Unleavened Bread that they become discouraged. They lose sight of what Yahuwah did for them in delivering them out of the world and that He WILL CONTINUE to deliver us day-by-day. The Days of Unleavened Bread should be a time of joyous meditation on Yahuwah's mercy in forgiving our sins and Yahuwah delivering us from Satan, the world, and our human nature.

- A. 1 Peter 2:9-12

- D. Psalms 130:3-8
- E. Isaiah 43:25; 44:21-22
- F. I John 1:7-10
- G. Acts 10:36, 43

Matters to pray about:

1. Express appreciation for Yahuwah's mercy, love and patience.
2. Pray that Yahuwah would give you peace of mind and freedom from all guilt
3. Ask Yahuwah to help you forgive others (Matthew 18:23-25)
4. Ask Yahuwah to help you follow his example of mercy and patience with others. (2 Timothy 2:24)

SIXTH DAY OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

Have you ever wondered why there are Kadosh Yowm at both the beginning and the conclusion of the Days of Unleavened Bread? None of the other Kadosh Yowm are so arranged – Feast of Tabernacles ends with a different feast – The Last Great Day. The Bible does not specifically say, but we might consider this possibility.

- I. We know that the Days of Unleavened Bread pictures our coming out of sin. What do the following verses have to say about WHO "initiates" that process and how it occurs?
- A. John 6:44-45, 65
  - B. Exodus 12:17
  - C. Romans 2:4
  - D. 2 Timothy 2:25
  - E. Revelation 3:20
  - F. Hebrews 5:9
  - G. John 15:16
  - H. 1 John 4:10-19

Yahuwah has called us. He is the one who picked us out among all others to be His special chosen ones.

- II. Could it be that the reason that there is a Holy Day at the conclusion of the Days of Unleavened Bread is because just as Yahuwah is the one who called us and started the process of conversion in us so He is also going to be the ONE WHO WILL FINISH WHAT HE STARTED. It is both encouraging and inspiring to know that if we keep a humble, yielded, and teachable mind, and we don't give up on ourselves, Yahuwah will finish what He has started in us. What do the following verses have to say about this subject?
- A. Philippians 1:6
  - B. 1 Thessalonians 5:8-10, 24
  - C. 2 Thessalonians 3:3-5
  - D. 1 Peter 5:10-11
  - E. Hebrews 12:2

Matters to pray about:

1. Pray that Yahuwah would establish us and make us steadfast (1 Thessalonians 3:12-13). Love each other.
2. Ask that Yahuwah would help us to not get discouraged and give up on ourselves.
3. Acknowledge our need for Yahuwah to sustain us, deliver us, and fight our battles for us.
4. Thank Yahuwah for making us His "chosen ones".
5. Thank Yahuwah for His love and gift of repentance.

SEVENTH DAY OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

Use this date to review the previous lessons. Especially review the areas of your life where you had been compromising and where you are going to be rededicating yourself.

You can also use this time to catch up on any of the lessons that you might have missed. There are important principles in all the lessons. You will profit most only if you have studied and prayed over all of them.

Matters to pray about:

1. Thank Yahuwah for His Kadosh Yowm.
2. Thank Yahuwah for the “good life” that you have been called to enjoy.
3. Ask for more of Yahuwah’s Ruwach Ha’Kadosh to help you be loyal to HIM and HIS work for the remaining time we have.
4. Ask Yahuwah to bless your family, marriage, and private life.
5. Pray concerning the list of areas where you want to overcome.
6. Pray concerning the areas where you want to serve ore in the coming year.

These suggestions are just that. Please add your own notes and comments and build upon it each year. You will be able to see where you have changed for the better or not at all. You will be able to measure – judge yourself. May Yahuwah be with you during your studies and growth.
